Mythological musical The Lightning Thief strikes gold at The Rose Theater

(OMAHA, Nebr.) The popular young adult book series about a teen-boy-turned-Greek-hero will burst onto The Rose Theater stage in a rousing pop musical version of The Lightning Thief, Jan. 22-31, 2016. The new musical is adapted from the book by Rick Riordan and is performed by guest artists from Theatreworks USA.

In The Lightning Thief, Percy Jackson is about to be kicked out of boarding school... again. And that's the least of his troubles. Lately, mythological monsters and the gods of Mount Olympus seem to be walking straight out of the pages of Percy's Greek mythology textbook and into his life. And worse, he's angered a few of them. Zeus's master lightning bolt has been stolen and Percy is the prime suspect.

Percy now has ten days to find and return Zeus's stolen property and bring peace to a warring Mount Olympus. But to succeed on his quest, Percy will have to do more than catch the true thief: he must come to terms with the father who abandoned him; solve the riddle of the Oracle, which warns him of betrayal by a friend; and unravel a treachery more powerful than the gods themselves.

The Lightning Thief is a musical adapted from the book The Lightning Thief by Rick Riordan and features a book by Joe Tracz with music, lyrics, & orchestrations by Rob Rokicki. The original Off-Broadway production was directed by Stephen Brackett (Buyer and Cellar) and choreographed by Sam Pinkleton (Machinal; Natasha, Pierre and the Comet of 1812). Fight choreography is by Turner Smith. The show features costumes by Sydney Maresca with sets by Lee Savage.
