(OMAHA, Nebr.) The cast of The True Story of The Three Little Pigs will turn a familiar fairy tale on its pigs' ear at The Rose, January 27 - February 12, 2017.

In this retelling of the classic story, the Big Bad Wolf finds himself on trial for his crimes against the Three Little Pigs. Featuring a Beatles-inspired score, retro costumes and a flamboyant set, The True Story of The Three Little Pigs is sure to delight families of all ages.

The cast of The True Story of The Three Little Pigs consists of several Rose Theater favorites as well as some newcomers to The Rose stage. Dan Chevalier, who last enchanted Rose audiences in the title role of Honk!, will portray the furry accused Alexander T. Wolf. He is joined by Rose veterans Lauren Krupski (Shrek, Prancer, Cat in the Hat, Pete the Cat, A Christmas Story) and Robby Stone (Shrek, Prancer, Honk!, Peter & the Starcatcher, Big Nate, Jackie & Me) who play multiple characters in the chaotic courtroom, as does Kimberlee Stone in her Rose mainstage debut. (Stone was recently featured in The Rose's Pre-K production of Mouse on the Move.) Rose teaching artist Ashley Laverty will make her premiere performance at The Rose as Lillian Magill, the tenacious journalist determined to find out the truth about Big Bad.

The True Story of The Three Little Pigs is a preposterous parody set in porker-centric Piggsylvania. Intrepid go-getter journalist Lillian McGill is live in the ready-for-reality-TV courtroom for the trial of the century that will determine if the wolf known as Big Bad is truly guilty of the crimes of which he has been accused. The trial is overseen by The “Honorable” Judge Prudence, a judge of questionable morals and a love of musical theater. In the end, the audience will decide the fate of the Wolf -- and the ultimate ending of the play.
