

For Immediate Release

DATE: February 2017

CONTACT: Kori Radloff, korir@rosetheater.org, 402-502-4641

Huck Finn Fact Sheet

- Date/Time: February 24 - March 12, 2017
Fridays at 7 pm, Saturdays at 2 pm & 5 pm, Sundays at 2 pm,
- Credits: By Eric Coble.
Adapted from the novel The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn by Mark Twain.
Produced by special arrangement with Dramatists Play Service, Inc., New York.
- Location: The Rose Theater, 2001 Farnam Street, Main Stage
- Show Description: The great American novel comes to life in a thrilling and deeply funny adaptation. Huck Finn flees the claws of “civilization” for the freedom of the mighty Mississippi. Along the way, he comes across Jim, an escaped slave. Opening Huck’s mind to the reality of slavery, the journey downriver with Jim is a real education for Huck.
- Show Specifics: Best for families with children ages 10 and up
Expected run time: 70 minutes
- Tickets: $20 Main Floor and Balcony
Call (402) 345-4849 or purchase online at www.rosetheater.org.
Discount ticket vouchers are available at all area Hy-Vee stores for $14.
Reservations are required.
- Sponsors: Children’s Hospital & Medical Center, Nebraska Furniture Mart, Kiewit Corporation, Humanities Nebraska, Nebraska Arts Council, Nebraska Cultural Endowment

###