Nathan Louis Fincham

Nathan Louis Fincham (Evander / Agent Stinger)

Nathan began his love for performing at age five when he enrolled in a theater workshop at The Rose with his dear friend Lauren, and began dance classes. This past summer Nathan had the opportunity to train and perform at IPOP in Anaheim, California and study under various acting coaches. Nathan loves music and enjoys choir, playing piano for church, and school band. He loves competing in soccer, basketball, baseball, track, and umpiring baseball. Nathan is thankful for influential role models in his life including Coach Tim (PACE soccer) and Mr. Lauber (principal at Good Shepherd Lutheran). He thanks his family for their love, support, and encouragement. Nathan learned early on the importance of kindness, standing up to bullying, and striving to let your light shine. He feels incredibly blessed to be a part of this amazing production!

Arya Nelson

Arya Nelson (Anisa / Agent Glitter Waffles)

Arya is excited to play the role of Agent Glitter Waffles in Secret Kindness Agents. This is her first show on the main stage. She is ten years old and in 5th grade at Oakdale Elementary. Her love of acting began at 9 years old when she attended a summer camp at the Rose Theater--then she was hooked. Since then, she has performed in additional summer camp theater roles as the Queen of Hearts in Alice in Wonderland at the Jewish Community Center and Peter Pan in Pirates of Neverland at the Rose Youth Theater. Arya also loves reading, math, writing, and learning new languages. She hopes to inspire kids to be more friendly and caring through Secret Kindness Agents.

Penelope West

Penelope West (Kaira)

Penelope is thrilled to make her debut at The Rose Theater! A freshman in the fine arts pathway at Omaha South, she has studied acting at The Rose, voice with the 402 Arts Collective, and dance with Julian Adair. Recently, Penelope performed in the One Act The Day the Music Came Back for the OPS One Act Festival. In addition to performing, she is a talented sewist and baker, creating handmade clothing, costumes, and trays of sweet treats in her free time. Penelope is passionate about all things art and music and thanks her family and mentors for their support.

Cici Rodriguez

Cici Rodriguez (Caron)

Cici is excited to make her mainstage debut in The Secret Kindness Agents! At 10 years old, she is a dedicated Girl Scout who loves staying active and taking on new challenges. She trains in Taijutsu, an MMA-style martial art, competes in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu, and enjoys playing soccer and volleyball for her school. Cici also plays the saxophone in her school band and sings in the choir, where she had a solo in her school's spring performance. Outside of her many activities, she loves reading, writing short stories, and illustrating her own books. Cici has also taken acting classes at The Rose, where she discovered her passion for the stage. With a creative spirit and a strong determination, Cici is thrilled to be part of this incredible production and is deeply grateful to her family, friends, and mentors for their unwavering support.

Ethaniel Jimenez Olvera

Ethaniel Jimenez Olvera (Alejandro)

My name is Ethaniel, I portray Alejandro (the class clown) in this play—big shocker, right? I absolutely love making people laugh. It's basically my superpower. As a proud extrovert, there's no better place for me than on stage, where I can share my love of laughter and creativity with everyone.
