Finley McKamy

Finley McKamy (Kevin)

Finn always enjoys his time on the stage. With every new role he seems to love the theater more and more. When Finn is not prepping for a role you can find him reading or playing games. He also loves spending time with his 2 brothers and sister. One of his favorite parts of rehearsals is making new friends with his cast-mates. He believes that with every new show he is in it's like he automatically makes a whole new group of friends. I have been blessed to perform on the Rose stage. Thank you to my Wife Joan and my three kids, Tristen, Brandon and Lexy. Without their constant love and support, this journey would not have been made.

This Theater holds a special place in my heart. As a veteran of shows, all around the country, THIS place has proven to be "special". My goal in this production, is just to be another link in the chain, a true member of this small village, that makes up THIS village - according to Milo.

And a SPECIAL spotlight on Artistic Director Matt Gutschick and my beloved Director, Kathy Tyree. May here light always shine forth. My Performance is due to the due diligence of Stage Manager Erin and Music Man Boston. Thank You. And a very grateful "thanks" to our Choreographer, Natalie. Her bottomless patience and endless joy, allowed my feet to find their way, eventually.
